Attachment to Paragraph 4, Verified Application for Admission Pro Hac Vice

Applicant provides this attachment to explain why she crossed out "where applicant regularly practices law" in paragraph 4 of the verified application for admission pro hac vice in the state of South Carolina. Applicant is admitted and authorized to practice law in the highest court of New York and the District of Columbia, but applicant does not currently regularly practice law in these jurisdictions. Applicant currently works in North Carolina under the direction and active supervision of licensed North Carolina attorneys. On March 17, 2009, the applicant spoke to Mr. Sam Miller at the South Carolina Office of Bar Admissions concerning her pro hac vice application in another matter before the South Carolina Administrative Law Court (which was granted on May 20, 2009). On the call, the applicant confirmed that she is eligible to be admitted pro hac vice in South Carolina because applicant is an active member of the bars of New York and DC, and will be associated in the South Carolina proceeding with the local counsel of record, pursuant to Rule 404, SCACR. Mr. Miller directed applicant to cross out the phrase "where applicant regularly practices law" in paragraph 4.
